

Monthly Cash Flow Planner

Write down each pay date and expected take home paycheck amount. Then list monthly expenses and debts that you'll pay from each paycheck. Pay basic priority expenses first: housing, utilities, food, medical, and transportation to see what is left for discretionary spending. You may need to use multiple pay periods to have enough funds to cover larger expenses.

Monthly Expense List	Dollars Needed	Due Date	Pay Date	Pay Date	Pay Date	Pay Date	Pay Date
			Pay Check Amount	Pay Check Amount	Pay Check Amount	Pay Check Amount	Pay Check Amount
			$	$	$	$	$
Mortgage/Rent
Heat
Electric
Water
Food
Medical Vehicle Gas
Vehicle Insurance
Vehicle Payment

YOU CAN DO IT!

FINANCIAL STABILITY IS WORTH YOUR TIME AND ATTENTION